CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Adele Landauer is an expert on personal performance and development. As a former actress, she founded a coaching centre and developed ManageActing, a training programme for actors but tailored to teach managers, various professionals and business leaders how to effectively present themselves in business as well as in public.

"Adele's passion is helping people live a balanced, happy and successful life."

In detail

Adele studied acting at the "Ernst-Busch" University of Acting in Berlin and has been an actress for 25 years on stage and in front of the camera. She was also a lecturer at the management school of St. Gallen on the topic of Personal Development and a regular contributor to a column for the German newspaper Die Welt.

Adele, originally from East Germany, witnessed the Berlin Wall being torn down but what she experienced was not only the physical coming down of the wall but millions of people who were able to tear down their own walls inside themselves.

What she offers you

Internationally experienced Adele (she resides in Germany and the USA) combines her abilities as an actress with her desire to help people to grow.
