

Andrew Strauss MBE

Former England Cricket Captain

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Andrew Strauss is a former England cricket captain, becoming only the 3rd ever England captain to win the Ashes home and away. He played a key part in the highly contested 2005 Ashes test series, his prolific run scoring and consistency contributing to England regaining the Ashes from Australia for the first time in 18 years.

"Focused on combining business principles with sporting principles"

In detail

Andrew scored a hundred on his debut at Lord's, and when he returned from the last tour of South Africa where he was England's most prolific batsman, he had scored three tons and was awarded the Man of the Series award. In his first 12 tests he scored 1,246 runs at an average of 56 making him one of England's truly great batsmen. In 2005 he was awarded the Wisden Cricketer of the Year and the MBE. In 2004 he became only the fourth batsman to score a century at Lord's on his Test debut. Having deputised as England captain in 2006, he was appointed on a permanent basis for the 2009 tour of the West Indies following Kevin Pietersen's resignation. Andrew is one of the most respected and highly rated cricketers in the world.

What he offers you

Andrew provides real insights from the world of sport. He knows exactly what it takes to reach the top, drawing upon his own experiences and his phenomenal rise in recent years. He shares his experiences - good and bad - as former captain of the England cricket team and really takes people on a journey of what he planned and now has achieved, from taking over the captaincy when the management and the team were in dis-array to the ultimate goal of winning the Ashes in Australia!

How he presents

Funny, entertaining and inspirational, Andrew is a great speaker and motivator and his presentations are always well received. Always polite, honest and happy to give of his time, he delivers the intended message to the very highest standard and attracts a high level of interest from clients and the media.
