

Bronwen Stephens

Mezzo Soprano

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Bronwen Stephens is a classically trained vocalist, currently bringing the sounds of opera to the London public as a busker on the Underground. Choral performances have taken her to from Perth to Kuala Lumpur to Riga and have included performances in the Royal Albert Hall, the Royal Festival Hall and St Paul's Cathedral with the London Philharmonic Choir. Other solo performances have included live vocals at various house club nights and private parties in London.

"The quality of her voice and her presence transform any event and made it magical"

In detail

Bronwen was brought up surrounded by classical music and language, laying the foundations for her love of opera, travel and foreign dialects. After trying her hand at a number of different instruments she settled on the human voice as her main vehicle of expression and has been singing since the age of 12. She also collaborates with various artists, including electronic band Intelligentsia, to create a fusion of classical vocals with a range of other music genres.
