

Prof. Danny Quah

Dean, Li Ka Shing Professor of Economics, Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy, NUS

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Danny Quah is Dean and Li Ka Shing Professor in Economics at the Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy - NUS, Singapore. Prof. Quah's current research takes an economic approach to world order - with focus on global power shift and the rise of the east, and alternative models of global power relations.

"Danny Quah continues to make significant contributions to the fields of Economic Growth and International Development"

In detail

Professor Quah was previously Assistant Professor of Economics at MIT, and then Professor of Economics and International Development, and Director of the Saw Swee Hock Southeast Asia Centre at LSE. He served as LSE's Head of Department for Economics, and Council Member on Malaysia's National Economic Advisory Council. Prof. Quah is Commissioner on the Spence-Stiglitz Commission on Global Economic Transformation; Member, Executive Committee, International Economic Association; and Senior Fellow, Asian Bureau of Finance and Economics Research.

What he offers you

In economics, Danny Quah has made huge contributions across a very wide range of areas, ranging from time-series econometrics, business cycles, inflation, and international income inequality to, most recently, technology and economic growth. He regularly speaks at seminars around the world on his focus subjects, including global governance and inequality in economic growth.

How he presents

Exceedingly passionate about economics and global governance, Danny introduces his audience to new thinking in a fluid and relaxed style, being both articulate and soft-spoken.

Languages

He presents in English.
