In detail

In 1980 Liverpool paid a record fee for Ian when he was a teenager of £300,000 which remains Chester's record sale 28 years on. He was voted PFA Young Player of the Year in 1983 after inspiring Liverpool to a second successive First Division/League Cup double. At club level, he also represented Chester, Juventus, Leeds United, Newcastle United, Sheffield United, Wrexham and Sydney Olympic before retiring from playing in 1999. He played regularly for the Welsh national team scoring a record 28 goals in 73 games. He was voted PFA Player of the Year, Football Writers Footballer of the Year and was the first British footballer to be awarded the European Golden Boot Award as Liverpool retained both the League and the League Cup and won the European Cup to complete a unique treble in 1984. He is currently the Elite League Performance director for the Welsh FA.
