CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Jonty Hurwitz is a leading financial and technological innovator and a highly successful entrepreneur. He co-founded Wonga.com in 2007; the multi-award winning online micro-loan company, that grew to a staggering scale in just five years.

"A leading financial and technological innovator"

In detail

Wonga was voted Europe's fastest-growing on-line company and won the Sunday Times TechTrack 100 in 2012. Jonty designed and built the first automated risk processing technology, to provide real-time unsecured personal loans online, including via a mobile app; and also the first company world-wide to provide an instant lending application app on the iPhone. He is a world leading specialist in several areas including consumer risk in the cloud, user interfaces for consumer finance, understanding mobile and internet customer behaviour for finance and cloud based financial computing. Jonty is also a widely collected and exhibited sculptor and artist. He has won several international awards for art, business and technology applying this idea.

What he offers you

Jonty shares with audiences worldwide the rise of robo-advisers and gives tips on how to remain relevant in the digital age. Jonty places significant focus on cultivating an innovative culture in order to be in the forefront of leadership, innovation and technology.

How he presents

Instrumental in bringing into focus the fact that technological innovation is happening so fast that it's hard to keep up, Jonty's high content presentations are delivered in his personal, yet professional style.

Languages
