

Kevin Gaskell

Business Leader, Team Builder and Entrepreneur

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Kevin is an energetic and passionate leader with a proven record of managing growth, driving successful turnarounds and delivering substantial improvements in companies already considered to be market leaders. He is currently Chairman of Spring Leap.com, Achilles Ltd and Dorney Court Walled Garden.

"Recognised as one of the most capable managers of his generation"

In detail

In 1987 he joined Porsche GB Ltd and four years later, at the age of 32, was appointed UK Managing Director. Inheriting a business which was close to bankruptcy he built a world class team to focus the business back to its engineering heritage. He subsequently became MD of BMW (GB) where he led the business to 4 years of record performance growing sales by 80% and profitability by 500%. He was then a dotcom entrepreneur, bringing Epyx from good idea to global business in 8 years. He was also Group CEO of EurotaxGlass, a world leader in electronic data, and in 2007 led a 500 million Euro MBO.

What he offers you

Kevin draws upon these experiences and those of his ongoing chairmanship of a number of companies, to share practical lessons of how people can be motivated to form teams which achieve extraordinary results, face new challenges and follow their passion.

How he presents

A natural communicator, Kevin has the ability to build and motivate a management team and enthuse and engage staff at all levels within an organisation.

Languages

He presents in English.
