

Michael Gold
Founder of 'Jazz Impact'

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Michael Gold is the founder and president of the successful business presentation and performance Jazz Impact - a learning and development programme that uses jazz to help organisations maximise their creative and intellectual potential. An experienced professor and teacher of jazz music, he applies his teaching methods in an innovative way to help businesses.

'Jazz Impact' connects the corporate world with the world of jazz

In detail

Michael holds a Ph.D. in Philosophy from New York University School of Education and Performing Arts as well as a Masters Degree in Jazz Studies from New England Conservatory. He created and ran the Jazz Department at Vassar College in Poughkeepsie, New York. In 1995 he received a grant from The National Endowment for the Arts for a programme that he designed to teach the skills of jazz improvisation to professional orchestral musicians.

What he offers you

In a world where innovation and creativity is the basis of economic growth, Michael is in great demand to teach business leaders how to become creative, innovative and adapt to a mode of continuous learning. He draws remarkable parallels between the world of business and the world of jazz.

How he presents

Michael is an exciting speaker whose vision of collaborative dynamics and passion for jazz will enlighten, entertain and motivate audiences from all business backgrounds.

Languages

He presents in English.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what he could bring to your event.

How to book him?

Simply phone, fax or e-mail us.

Topics

Motivation
Facilitating Changes
Innovative Thinking
Creativity and Inspiration
Improvisation