

President Pat Cox

Former President of the European Parliament

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Pat Cox was President of the European Parliament until Mid 2004. He has been an MEP since 1989, representing the constituency of Munster in the Republic of Ireland. Before entering politics he worked both as an economics lecturer and as a journalist and TV presenter. In 1998 he was first elected President of the European Liberal Democrat Group. He was unanimously re-elected in June 1999. In 2005 Pat Cox was elected as the new president of the European Movement International.

Winner of the 2004 Charlemagne Prize for Great European Achievement

In detail

Pat Cox graduated from Trinity College in 1974. He went on to become an economics lecturer at the Institute of Public Administration in Dublin and the University of Limerick. Between 1982 and 1986 he worked as a television current affairs reporter, presenter and investigative journalist on the TV programme Today Tonight. He reported on Irish and international economic issues including US Presidential elections, the United Kingdom and French general elections.

What he offers you

Having worked closely with all matters concerning member States of the E.U Pat Cox is ideally placed to offer crucial advice and information to decision makers from all industries wishing to take advantage of the expanding European market place.

How he presents

With a background in lecturing and broadcasting, Pat Cox is an informative politician and speaks knowledgeably about the role played by the European Parliament in the enlargement of Europe and what the future holds.

Languages

Pat Cox presents in English.

Want to know more?

To find out exactly what Pat Cox could bring to your event or to book him for an upcoming engagement please contact Celebrity Speakers Ltd.

Credentials

Economic and Monetary Affairs Committee

Institutional Affairs Committee

Sub-Committee on Monetary Affairs

He has been a substitute member of the following: Foreign Affairs Committee
Legal Affairs and Citizens Rights Committee

Topics

The Future of Europe

European Accession

The Economic Outlook for an Expanding Europe

The Politics and Economics of Europe in the Global Arena