

Paul Merson

Former England International Footballer, After Dinner
Speaker & Pundit

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Paul Merson is a former England international, Arsenal, Middlesbrough, Aston Villa and Portsmouth footballer who retired in 2006. In a career that spanned over 21 years, at club level, Paul made 622 appearances scoring 126 goals. He was capped 21 times for England scoring 3 goals. Following his highly successful football career, he is now a media pundit, appearing frequently on Sky Sports's Soccer Saturday. He has recently made regular appearances on Star Sports Asia, covering EPL games.

"Paul Merson is a true footballing legend"

In detail

Paul Merson started his career at Arsenal, joining the club as an apprentice, making his debut in 1986. Having reached the peak of his career as he gained selection for Glenn Hoddle's England squad for the 1998 World Cup, his career was put on the line in 1994 when he admitted to being an alcoholic and cocaine addict. In 2006, he also commenced a column for the official Arsenal FC magazine.

What he offers you

Paul Merson is a man who has truly confronted his demons and is not afraid to discuss them openly. He is a joy to listen to and can captivate any audience with the story of his amazing journey. Having played with and against many of the worlds top footballers, he is now an extremely popular after dinner speaker, enlightening everyone with his hilarious, sad, interesting anecdotes from a glittering rollercoaster career at the top of football.

How he presents

Highly sought-after on the after dinner speaking circuit with a fantastic mixture of stories and anecdotes from his football career, Paul Merson knows how to relax everyone around him.

Topics

Overcoming Adversity
After Dinner Speaking
Awards

Languages

He presents in English.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what he could bring to your event.

How to book him?

Simply phone, fax or e-mail us.

Publications

2000

Hero and Villain (with Ian Ridley)

1996

Rock Bottom