

Sally Gunnell OBE DL

Olympic Gold Medalist & Broadcaster

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Sally Gunnell OBE is one of Britain's greatest ever track athlete. Sally was the first woman in history to hold all four international gold medals at the same time - Olympic, World, Commonwealth and European, a record she held for over 20 years. Since retirement, Sally has developed new career paths as a television presenter, keynote speaker and wellbeing advocate.

"Britain's First Lady of Sport"

In detail

Sally became part of the BBC Sport team and was a regular fixture on Athletics programmes, interviewing athletes on the finish line and bringing the trackside atmosphere into millions of living rooms across the UK. She has appeared in numerous TV shows and is a regular on the Breakfast News sofas and conducts hundreds of radio interviews each year. Today, Sally's mission is to promote health and wellbeing for everybody in the UK. Her corporate work, helping companies to bring health and wellbeing into the workplace, confirms her formidable reputation as an influencer at the highest levels of business.
